

Teaching Assistant Conference

Session One 9.30 - 11.45am – Getting the start right

How can teaching assistants help to ensure every young learner is in the right state to learn effectively?

This session explores how teaching assistants can adopt simple, but effective strategies that can ensure all learners are ready to learn, are in a suitable state for learning and feel motivated to learn

Session two 12.45 – 3.00pm - The key principles for outstanding learning experiences

What role do teaching assistants play in creating learning experiences that result in deeper learning for all young learners?

This session explores different types of learning and how teaching assistants can plan and offer outstanding learning experiences. It will consider the key principles for effective learning and how these can be promoted in any classroom.
