

ASPIRING LEADERS Programme

Autumn -Spring

*From the moment a teacher begins to teach, they are a leader.
We believe that what we do makes a difference.*

This course helps teachers in the early stages of their profession to move into leadership roles; developing their awareness of an effective leadership team, the issues they face and the educational theories that underpin school improvement.

The course will cover

- The vision, values and ethos underpinning successful schools.
- Securing and sustaining high achievement in schools; developing, improving and sustaining high quality teaching, data driven dialogues, thinking about 'losing the gap', addressing current educational theories.
- Emerging educational priorities for 2019
- How to get the best out of edexcel, 4matrix and other software.
- Effective communication in a multimedia age – to parents, students, staff and governors.
- The principles of setting up new projects and ensuring impact.
